Welcome to the 39th Annual Serpentini Chevrolet Cleveland Challenge Cup of Bocce

It is my honor to welcome all of you to the 39th Annual Cleveland Challenge Cup of Bocce! Our club and I would like to welcome all of guests from both near and far. I want to pay special thanks to Serpentini of Willoughby Hills, their major sponsorship is greatly appreciated.

We have a change of directors this year. After years of director Paul DiCicco has stepped down but is still on our committee. Thank you, Paul, your dedication as director and continual work for the tournament is commendable. Our newly appointed director is Frank Gambatese. Frank has been an integral part of our bocce committee for years and has done excellent as his new role of director.

Thank you to the "court crew" headed up by Sal Continenza and Nick Albertone for the countless hours to getting our courts in tournament shape. Our club takes great pride in this tournament and the members who volunteer make this all happen.

As President, I look forward to watching our guests getting together at our facility and re connecting with friends and family. Along with the bocce tournament we have created a festival family friendly atmosphere that is hard to duplicate. So welcome to our club, I hope everybody enjoys being a part of the tournament as much as our members and I do.

Grazie e Buona Fortuna!

GIOVANNI CASTIGLIONE

Giovanni "Gio" Castiglione has sung the U.S. and Italian Anthems throughout Northeast Ohio for a variety of sporting and civic events, however he is most proud of the sustained invitation to return to the Cleveland Challenge Cup of Bocce each year. Gio began singing the anthems for us in 2012 at the age of 10. Today, the Solon, Ohio native returns to sing the Canadian, Italian and U.S. anthems.

An accomplished soloist, Giovanni keeps the classics of the 50s and 60s alive with swing, jazz and pop favorites from Frank Sinatra, Dean

Martin, and Bobby Darin tunes. Judi Martino (the late crooner, Al Martino's wife) says of Giovanni, "He's a young man with an old soul who sings the classics wonderfully".

Gio also sings baritone with the Bowling Green State University Men's Chorus, the men's Contemporary A Cappella ensemble Ten40!, the BGSU A Cappella Choir, two recital choirs, a quartet and an octet. He is an incoming junior at Bowling Green, majoring in vocal music education.

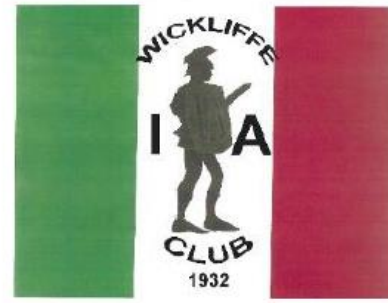

The youngest son of Dennis & Suzi Castiglione, Gio has a proud passion for his Italian heritage and always looks forward to performing for his dear friends at the Wickliffe Italian American Club.
